

Greetings from the Dr. T. Keith Glennan Memorial Library and the Information Center at NASA Headquarters in Washington DC!

This CD is a sampling of NASA-produced coloring books, activity books, and graphic novels/comic books for students in kindergarten through high school. Please feel free to use and share these activities in your home, in your school, or in any programs in which you may be involved.

You can find more educational resources for students, parents, and teachers at:
https://www.nasa.gov/audience/foreducators/topnav/materials/A-Z_Pubs.html

These books and newer additions may also be found online through the Information Center's website at:
<https://www.hq.nasa.gov/office/hqlibrary/ic/coloringbooks.html>

NASCAR driver Jimmie Johnson under a Space Act Agreement with NASA is part of an educational program called Rockets2Racecars
(<http://www.nasa.gov/externalflash/Rockets2Racecars/>).

The Jimmie Johnson Race Team website has several activity booklets at:
<http://jimmiejohnson.com/youth>

And if you are interested in introducing your children to European languages while maintaining a space theme, please visit the European Space Agency's educational materials website at:
